Trustees meetings

On the invitation of Mr J Holden it was decided to arrange a meeting at Bexley in June.

A combined practice meeting to be held in conjunction with Mr J E Davis at Bishopsgate and Shoreditch on a Saturday afternoon convenient to both parties was left to the secretary to fit up when possible.

Mr George Radley made an appeal that practices at Shoreditch should be maintained.

Mr C. J. Matthews proposed that a letter be sent to the Vicar conveying the Society's sympathy with him in his illness and wishing him a speedy recovery.

Mr A Hardy proposed Note of Thanks to the secretary by Gilbert seconded.

Mr J Cross proposed the Annual Dinner be postponed until after the war.

This concluded the business and the meeting was closed.
